GIVING A TEA DANCE TODAY.

Wife of the commandant of the Marine Corps

SULLIVAN. On Thursday, February 4, 1915, at 6:20 p.m., at her residence, 213 14th street northeast, after a long illness, SARAH SULLIVAN (nee Fenn), beloved wife of the late Samuel Sullivan, aged seventy-three years. Remains may be seen at the chapel of Win. H. Sardo & Co., 408 H street neytheast.

Funeral from the Fourth Presbyterian Courts, 13th and Fairmont streets northwest, on Monday, February 8, at 2 p.m. Interment at Glenwood cemetery. Relatives and friends invited wood cemetery. Relatives and friends invited to attend. (Saltimore papers please copy.)

BEALL. Sacred to the memory of our beloved son and brother, CHARLES W. BEALL, who died five years ago today, February 6, 1910.

BEALL. In loving memory of my dear brother.
CHARLES W. BEALL, who died five years ago today, February 6, 1910.
Five long years have passed away.
Think I while the teardrops start.
But the memory of my dear brother
Still is fresh within my heart.
BY HIS LOVING SISTER TILLIE.

HENNIGE. In sad but loving remembrance of my darling baby brother, WHALIE HEN-NIGE, who fell asleep in Jesus five years ago tomorrow, February 7, 1919. Five years have passed with all their changes Since God said we must part. But yet, darling brother, all these changes Can never take you from my beart. BY HIS SISTER EMMA.

HOWARD. In sad but loving remembrance of our darling wife and mother, MARY E. HOWARD, who entered eternal rest two years ago today, February 6, 1912. They say if our beloved dead Should seek the old familiar place Some stranger would be there instead. And they would find no welcome face.

We cannot tell how it would be In other homes, but this we know Could our lost durling come to us, That she would never find it so.

Have slowly learned from day to day. In all life's cares to bear our part. But whether grave or whether gay, We hide her memory in our heart.

Fond, faithful love bath blessed our way, And friends are around us true and tried: They have place, but here today Is as empty as the day she died. They cannot know, the ones who say Our best beloved would find no place

Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears of sorrow still flow;
Fond memory keeps you ever near me.
Though heaven claimed you two years ago.
BY HER LOVING SISTER, DAISY R. HITE.

EE. In sad and loving remembrance of Rev GEORGE W. LEE, D. D., LL. D., whom God our Heavenly Father, saw fit to take from us five years ago today, February 6, 1910 after pastoring the Vermout Avenue Baptis Church nearly twenty-five years.

In the midst of all our sorrow We forgot it had been said Take no thought of tomorrow But look to Me instead.

Plowers we lay upon his grave
May wither and decay,
But fresh and green bis memory
In our hearts shall always stay,
SISTER AND BROTHERS.

SEALE. In loving remembrance of my busband JOHN T. NEALE, who died one year age today, February 6, 1914.

Loved in life; remembered in death. BY HIS LOVING WIFE, LUCY C. NEALE.

SIMPSON. In loving but and remembrance of my beloved husband, WILLIAM H. SIMP SON, who departed this life six years ng-today, February 6, 1909.
HIS LOVING WIFE MARTHA.

THOMAS. In memoriam of my beloved wife.
ESTELLE BEATRICE THOMAS, who died
one year ago today. February 6, 1914.
I mourn her loss, I feel remotse
Because she's gone away.
I am hopeful yet, though much I fret,
We'll meet some other day.
BY HER HUSBAND, JAMES H. THOMAS.

THOMAS. In remembrance of our mother and wife, ELIZABETH THOMAS, who entered eternal rest sixteen years are today, Febru-ary 6, 1899.

GAGE. On Thursday, February 4, 1915, HELEN MAR GAGE, wife of Seth D. Gage. Funeral (private) from her late residence, 2509 14th street northwest, on Monday, February 8, HeDERMOTT. On Thursday, February 4, 1915, Freehold, N. J., GillsERT C., infant son W. C. and Anna Grace McDermott.

SALMON. Passed away at 2:15 a.m. today, at her home in New York city, Mrs. MINNIE SALMON, beloved mother of Mrs. Isidor Grosser.

OHIO STILL IS RISING: FLOODS IN CINCINNAT

Railroads Make Preparations to Quit Union Station-Little

CINCINNATI, February 6.—The Ohio iver reached 54.7 feet here this morning, 5.6 feet above flood stage and continued to rise at the rate of two-tenths of a foot in hour. The greater part of the ground in the river section of the city is under water, although little actual suffering has to all those in the flooded district. The river registered 54.7 feet at 9 o'clock and an announcement was issued shortly thereafter by the Central Union railroad lepot officials that the station would be acated early in the afternoon. All of the railroads have made preparations to move to other stations on higher ground ot far from the Central Union station. Government Weather Forecaster Dever-eaux stated that the river would reach a maximum here of 56 feet some time Sun-day morning and begin to fall Monday. The announcement said that the crest of the flood had been reached at Portsmouth, Ohio, at 55,5 feet and was falling at all points above Portsmouth.

The rainfall in the Ohio watershed on the Mississippi below Cairo flood stages are probable by the end of the coming week.

Pennsylvania and Illinois where evi ence presented justifies such investi gation. The original resolution was aimed particularly at Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania and Roger J. Sullivan, the democratic candidate for the Senate in Illinois, who failed of election. It has been charged that great sums of money were spent in the interests of these men. Mrs. William Haywood entertained at a luncheon today in compliment to Mrs. Junius Parker and Mrs. Walter Wells. There were also present Mrs. Eberle, Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. Victor Kauffmann, Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Ross Thomp-son, Princess Kalanianaole, Mrs. Conthese men.

At the meeting of the Senate committee yesterday Senator Sutherland endeavored to have adopted an amendment including investigation of senatorial primaries and elections in Alabama, Indiana, South Dakota and California, where democrats were successful in the race for the Senate, and where charges have been made that large sums of money were used to aid the election of the democrats. This was defeated in committee. But if the resolution comes up for action in the Senate it is likely that a similar amendment will be offered on the floor of the Senate. nor, Mrs. John Ritchie, Mrs. Mason Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. Theodore Baldwin, Mrs. Russell Harrison and Mrs
